

RE Knowledge Organiser

Southwold Primary School

Topic: How important is it for Jewish people to do what god wants them to do?

Year 4 Spring

Judaism

What should I already know?

- Jesus is the son of God has the power to forgive sins.
- Jesus's death and resurrection is celebrated at Easter.
- Christians believe that Jesus chose to go to his death to atone all of the wrongdoing in the world.
- Christians believe that they are also forgiven of any sins.

Impact on believer / daily life

- Many Christians will be aware of and may regular say , "The Lords Prayer".
- Christians ask God to forgive his or hers wrongdoing as they forgive people who have wronged them. This implies that God expects Christians to practice forgiveness towards all others.
- Food rules are a daily reminder of the special relationship.

Vocabulary

Passover	A festival every year.
Betray	To be false or disloyal.
parable	Illustrate a moral or lesson.
servant	Someone that serves.
salvation	Saving humans from sin.
communion	Christians have bread and wine.
paten	A plate made of gold or silver.
chalice	A large cup or goblet containing wine.
symbol	Something that represents or stands for something else.

What will I know by the end of this unit?

- Christians see Holy week as the end of Jesus earthly life, leading to his resurrection.
- The events of Holy week were important in showing the disciples what Jesus came to do.
- Christians today trust that Jesus really did rise from the dead and is still alive today.
- Jesus celebrated Passover with his disciples, before he died. It is called 'The Last Supper'. They ate bread and wine.
- During the meal Jesus washed all the disciples feet to show the importance of selfless service.

Passover

The Last Supper

Chalice and paten

communion

Links with other religions

Shabbat (Judaism) - Jewish people celebrate Shabbat weekly to remember God resting on the seventh day, after he created the world. The 10 Commandments were given to Moses by God. Jews also share meals together during Shabbat.

Jumu'ah (Islam) - Many Muslims (especially Muslim men) attend Friday prayer every week at the mosque to remember Allah (God).